

A rustic autumn-themed background featuring a weathered wooden plank wall. Several red and yellow apples are scattered around, some resting on a woven basket in the foreground. Yellow and orange autumn leaves are also visible, some overlapping the apples and the wood. The overall scene is warm and inviting, typical of a fall harvest display.

Historian Election

Candidates:

- Marla Allen

The word "Congratulations!" is rendered in a vibrant, multi-colored 3D font. The letters transition through a spectrum of colors: red, orange, yellow, green, cyan, blue, purple, and magenta. The text is slanted upwards from left to right, giving it a dynamic and celebratory appearance.
